PRESIDENT'S REPORT - For July 2018

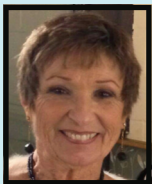

Hello my friends. Here we are in July, one of the two months named for Augustus Caesar. Guess the other one. So nice to have had Charlie Gehlbach and David/Marlena Tygett with us this past session. And what a great dance band. Attendance was extra large. Well we all moved one position forward in that relentless grand queue, when we lost Jim Roberson of the Sacramento club. His age was below the range within which we come to expect such dear losses. As is always the case he will be missed.

Your club's matters are in order. Under the watchful direction of Geri Eckert we keep an eye on the monthly bank balance, which is a bit tight. But we shall fix that as required. And thanks always to our devoted volunteers.

URT of the month: Jeeves-Bot., Henry J., and self-driving vehicles, We mature citizens all know the name Kaiser, the famous industrialist/hospital founder of Oakland. I doubt he would buy a self-driver today. His slogan was; "FIND A NEED AND FILL IT", which can be seen revolving on the barrels of his concrete mix trucks, among other equipment. Just where is the need [or demand], he might ask today. 99% of car owners either like or don't mind driving. So why is the government spending untold billions subsidizing development and very expensive infrastructure improvements for an extremely complicated and dangerous mechanism? The leader, Elan Musk of Tesla admits that the left-side-seated person must pretend to drive-keep his hands on the computer-controlled steering wheel and also pay attention to the road! What ever happened to cost/benefit? Oh, about Jeeves-Bot? he is my robotic personal valet. Puts on my socks for me too.

A great big touche! Like so many siblings, my brother, a retired clinical psychologist, and I are more different than alike. I've always been the hands-on mechanic. Don is quite intellectually minded and sort of looks down on my type. But, we do share a sense of humor. One day while joking about same he chided, " How many books have you read Frank ? " After admitting "Not many" I retorted "But I'll bet you could not even change a flat tire". "Oh I could"..... but the tire would have to want to change".

Til next month, Your Prez. Frank

MONEY MATTERS For July 2018 By: Geri Eckert, Treasurer

We had a few major expenses come due this month which put a humongous KINK in the "money-making" department. But these big-ticket items don't happen regularly; thank goodness. We'll just have to make it up in the coming months. So don't forget to remind (and bring) your friends to come to our monthly sessions and lets make my next month's financial report a better one!!!!!!

A most sincere thank you to DAVE & MARLENA TYGETT for their wonderful cash donation. It was so nice to see them after their long absence. Read all about DAVE and CHARLIE GEHLBACH (GEHLBACH: the H is in the correct place!!) in Billie's column "SEEN AT THE SCENE. And thank you, one and all, for your participation in the raffle, the music and the dancing...making the day a successful one in the "fun" department.

VIBES FROM THE VEEP (VICE PRESIDENT) For July, 2018

Once again, the Jambalaya Swing Band left no doubt in anybody's mind that they are a top-notch band. They are both a great listening and dance band. Most of the tunes they played were arranged by their leader, Ken Brock. We are indeed fortunate that they have come out to Stockton and performed for us! I am biased of course because, as many of you are aware, I worked with most of the members of this band as both a musician and music educator for many years in the East Bay Area. Biased or not - great band! Giving the JSB an occasional break again were our trusty jammers. Many thanks to Greg Ayala, Geri Eckert, Lauren Iverson, Carl Kaiser, Frank Lindskoog, Dick Lockwood, Jim Lucas, Larry Tyrell, Chris Williams, Dick Williams and Stuart Yasaki. Special thanks to Stuart, a member of the JSB, who sat in with us and contributed some great sax and clarinet sounds.

If word has not reached you yet, we lost another fine musician a few weeks ago. Jim Roberson was the drummer in the Dr. Bach and Jazz Practitioners band. You might also recognize him as the drummer for the monthly vocal set at the Sacramento Traditional Jazz Society sessions. In addition, I wrote about the passing of Jim Laveroni last month. Indeed, we have lost two great gentlemen named Jim who played drums in the last two months.

We will again host a Jam Sunday at our July session. Musicians far and wide - here are the particulars: If you wish to be a part of a session or two, please let me know. If you wish to lead a group, send the names of the members. Of the group to me. If you don't have a complete ensemble, that is OK. We can fill those empty chairs with talented, enthusiastic musicians! While it would be great to have everybody attend the entire session from 12-5, I know that may not be possible. Let me know if there is a specific time when you and/or your group can play. Sets will be 50-55 minutes long and begin at the top of the hour. I will do my best to work the schedule out to accommodate your wishes. Enjoy the rest of the month. See you at the club on July 1st!

P. P. (PAST PRESIDENT) SEZ - For July 2018

I'll bet you think everything concerning the San Joaquin Dixieland Jazz Society takes place on the first Sunday of the month. Right? Well....you would be partially right. Imagine my delight when I got a phone call last Tuesday (June 18th).

Treasurer Geri says some guy called about an abandoned trailer in the Elks Club lot.

The guy had to break the lock on the fence and then the lock on the trailer to get in. For those of you who don't know, for the umpteenth year the SJDJS has stored all of its sound equipment, drums and other valuables in a small red trailer. For as long as I can remember this trailer has been kept on the Elks lot behind a locked chain link fence. Yes....it is in our lease agreement with the BPOE. Much to the chagrin of the Elks Club member who has the assignment of cleaning up their lot and making it prettier, he found the trailer crammed full of equipment (OUR EQUIPMENT!) After breaking in, he now had the task of repairing the locking mechanism. One problem, he can't get the extremely burglar proof lock off of the mechanism so it can be repaired. Why is that a problem? Because one key is in Moraga at President Lindskoog's home. The other key is in Rancho Cordova at Equipment Manager Tyrell's home.

Following several timely phone calls, we got a three way phone call going with Ye Editor, Larry Tyrell and the Elks Club Member (Who shall mercifully remain nameless.) The latter two met in Rancho Cordova and the elusive key was exchanged. The bottom line is our trailer is now even more secure that it was prior to the "Burglary".

It was a real treat to see two of our recuperating members at the June 2018 SJDJS Session. Dave Tygett was there with his lovely wife Marlena. And Charlie Gehlbach was also there, chomping at the bit to play his horn, but unable to do so at the present time. As you may know, Charlie is undergoing radiation treatment in his facial area. Something I too know a little about. When he is done, both of us will have these really dandy fiberglass masks that they use to secure a patient to the radiation table. Kind of like those hockey masks seen in some horror movies. We plan on going trick-or-treating together when Charlie has fully recovered.

I try to stay up on the news from the Sacramento Club regarding second Sunday of the month Sessions. I have it on good authority that there will be no July 8, 2018 session. However, the good news is that there will definitely be an August 12, 2018 Sunday Session, from noon to 5 pm at the Riverside Elks Club. This event will be promoted by the Sacramento Jazz Education Foundation. This event will feature the musicians who attended the 2018 Jazz Camp.

So, what about some listening enjoyment for you? Here is your homework assignment for the month of July, 2018. The tune is The Johnson Rag. This one by the Dukes of Dixieland. The U tube link to hear this tune is here: <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=2yVtrw-sf2c>

A great Seldom Heard Tune in my book. Hey....Did I say Seldom Herd? Well here comes a shameless plug for the Seldom Herd Band. The usual Herders are: Geri Eckert, Greg Ayala, Carl Kaiser, Charlie Gehlbach (currently on medical leave), Chris Williams, Bob Gonzalez, Mark Kramer, Bill Sharp or Dave Sieber on bass and Dick Lockwood. We will be on hand to help out with the Jam-a-Roo on July 1, 2018 at SJDJS. And....in addition, we are playing at the Jackson Lions Club July 3rd. (yes 3rd)

Giant Fireworks Show, Family Picnic, etc. in Jackson. For this event we are known as the Weenie Brigade. We have played this show for more than 30 years. The location is on Hoffman Street in Jackson 95642. The music begins with other family friendly activities around 5:30 PM. Patriotic Tunes, marches, Dixieland, music. We are joined at this event by Dannie Balsler of the Midnight Rose fame. You have never seen such a great fireworks show. Why not consider joining the other 3,000 people for the event. Admission is free. Hot Dogs and snacks available or bring your own goodies. School grounds...so no booze....not even for the musicians!

That's 30 for July of 2018 Folks! Dick Lockwood

Oh, I love it when I have lots of good stuff to tell you. But, part of the good stuff is that many of you were there, so you already know some of the good stuff. The music was swingin' and the dance floor was jumpin' and the cash register was clanging (silently of course!) and joy reigned supreme!

Two of our favorite guys took a break from the sick list to come in and absorb some of the affection and admiration we have been sending through cyberspace. We were so delighted to see the masterful Mister of the rollicking Raffle, Dave Tygett, (and of course the lovely and gracious Marlena). Dave was looking very, very well, but not yet ready to re-take the raffle reins. So our continued kudos to the comely couple, Bob and Philinda Stillwell who are pinch hitting for the aforementioned Tygetts. And our hearts sang a song of unbridled joy at the sight of maestro Charlie, sometimes called Dr. Bach, leader of Dr. Bach and the Practitioners. Actually, he is called Dr. Bach because otherwise we have to figure out where the h goes, in Gehlbach. Charlie also was looking very well, but healing from delicate surgery takes time, and I expect he will be standing in front of the band waving his arms for a while before he gets to tootle his trumpet. Maybe he can find a tasteful baton to wave. With flashing lights or a sign that unfurls and says . . . (oh, I don't know. You guys think of something.) I hear the doctors gave him an extra dose of anesthesia to keep him from sitting up and kibitzing during the surgery. (That was unkind. I just made that up to test Charlie's good nature.)

Are you tired of good news yet? Because I have more. The beautiful and charming Kathy Moreira, who has been seen enjoying the company of a handsome man named Frank Barcelos, is now, Kathy Barcelos. We wish them a long and happy life together, filled with beautiful music. What a pleasure it was to see Ron Ito on the dance floor. It has been too long since he has graced our dance floor, and all of us are the worse for it. The dance floor loves him; he doesn't seem to put any weight on his feet, they just glide along the floor. Remember the old song, "Let Yourself Go." "Come Get together, Let the dance floor feel your leather, _____." Let Yourself Go.: What are those missing words? That's been bugging me for a month. Geri will find out for me. I guarantee you that Frank Lindskoog will know the tune. He once, years ago, started a list, but it turns out he actually has upwards of 30,000 different tunes in his head. Once he hears one, it just stays in there. He doesn't know why. There are probably some other things he would rather have kept in his head during his days of gainful employment. I'm only guessing. That may not be true at all.

Every member is important to us, and loved and admired for various reasons. I would like to mention that I missed Vic and Ruth Grijalva, loyal supporters of SJDJS for many years. They are such a pleasure to visit with and watch on the dance floor. Hope all is well, and I want them to know they were missed. Albert Galaviz and Christina Aasen were also missed. Last heard, Christina was suffering extreme back pain. She has been missed for many months. I hope she is okay. Albert has been an active and loyal member for many years, and the dance floor doesn't look natural without him and Marge Ramirez. They are a couple that make you smile just by walking in the door.

I was happy to see loyal members Luis and Frances Rodriguez "letting the dance floor feel their leather." Stephen Smith was on hand, and Yosh and Arleen Mataga were another welcome sight. The Devaneys were not among our revelers, but I assume they were reveling somewhere else. Facebook tells me Ginger had a birthday, but she wears them so well I know you will never guess it.

Here is something important for you to think about. With all the wonderful, danceable, magnificent music I heard from the popular dance band, the Jambalaya, the two tunes that entered my soul, and caused my pen to scribble, were "Darkness on the Delta" sung by Geri Eckert, and "Louisiana Fairytale" played by Dick Lockwood, et al. Both of these lovely tunes were performed in jam sets. Get it? They may well be available to hear in July when we will have jammers all day. They play some snappier stuff, too. Such as "Struttin' with some Barbeque." Well, you know. Just don't forget to come. It's July first.

Raffle Ramble From June 2018 By: Philinda and Bob Stillwell

At the June session we were treated to some awesome music and a nice choice of raffle prizes as well. Betty Gadberry chose a basket of luscious strawberries. A "Sip Sip Hooray" wine glass went home with Geri Eckert. Having 2 winning tickets, Billie Ricker took home a package of M & Ms and a gerber daisy. Muffins will soon be on the breakfast menu at Greg Ayala's house. Chocolate mint candies might soothe a sweet tooth for Frances Rodrigues. Judy Griffiths spotted a pretty pot of purple violets and a bag of mixed nuts. Arta Mason picked a box of Fiddle Faddle to share with her dancing pals. A bottle of zinfandel and one of shiraz appealed to Larry Schaffer, while Sharon Larson preferred the white reisling varietal. Thanks bunches once again to Larry Tyrell for his donation of prizes!

June Raffle income was $152. Thank you All!!!!

Friends: If you know of someone who is ill or in need of cheering up, and would like their name on the Sunshine List please phone Marlena Tygett at: (209) 957 4058

Ed. Note: Nice to see both our recuperating "Boys" at the June SJDJS session. Welcome back aboard Dave Tygett with Marlena. And Charlie Gehlbach AKA Doc Bach
