SJDJS Sunday JULY 5, 2020 SESSION IS

CANCELED

WE WISH THERE WAS SOMETHING NEW TO TELL YOU!
WE ARE STILL MAKING A MONTH TO MONTH DECISION ON WHEN WE CAN MEET AGAIN.

THE CORONA RULES AND RECOMMENDATIONS KEEP CHANGING:

MASKS - NO MASKS - NEW TESTS - NEW CASES

SIX FEET APART PERSONAL DISTANCING - YADA YADA YADA!

However, there are some exceptions to the rules

where the mask and distancing requirements are being waived:

- 1. If one is participating in a "Demonstration."*
- 2. If one engages in Arson or Looting at said demonstrations.*
- 3. If one is in attendance at large political rallies for either major party.*
- 4. And, a special waiver is available for people who wish to create an "Autonomous Zone" in one of our larger cities.*

But....if your intent is to go to a jazz club session, that remains a NO NO.

And so, your Board has voted to hold off on our grand reopening for yet another month.

We hope to be Open for your Music, Dancing and Listening Pleasure on Sunday, August 2, 2020.

Many of our Regular Jammer Musicians have expressed concern over meeting again too quickly and have opted out of a July Session.

We totally understand and will continue to act on the side of Caution.
We hope you understand!

We will post notices to you about our coming meetings or cancellations on our website: sanjoaquindixielandjazz.org

Members who have opted for US Mail will get their update by mail.

Judy Hendricks has worked in and around the Sacramento Jazz Scene for years. She does a great job with a publication called the Jazz Chronicle. As we read this month's Jazz Chronicle, we find that all nearby jazz societies are remaining closed through July 2020. So to are most of our great local bands at their respective venues. Yes, Festivals too! See page 2 for information and a link to Judy's Jazz Chronicle.
